Four Seasons

India (IN) | four-seasons

Description

Four Seasons is an Indian wine label with a range shaped by grape and colour. Its business history is connected with Grover Zampa Vineyards after the 2019 sale of the Four Seasons wine business and associated brands.

Brand story

Four Seasons grew as an Indian wine label and later became part of the wider Grover Zampa business story. The range is best explored through its different colours, grapes, and styles rather than one single flavour description.

Tasting notes

Range: The wines move across different styles, so aroma, acidity, body, and fruit character change with grape and colour.

Wine style: Fresh whites, roses, and fuller reds each bring a different drinking experience to the table.

Why choose

A broad Indian wine label for exploring different colours and grape-led styles with familiar food.

How to enjoy

Serve: Follow the exact label temperature in a clean wine glass.

Food: Start with tandoori fish, paneer tikka, tomato pasta, or roast chicken depending on the bottle style.

Pairings

- tandoori fish
- paneer tikka
- tomato pasta
- roast chicken

FAQs

What is Four Seasons?

Four Seasons is an Indian wine label associated with Four Seasons Wines and the Grover Zampa group history.

How should I choose a Four Seasons wine?

POSITION 8 | WINE

Zinzi

India (IN) | zinzi

Description

Zinzi is an Indian wine label associated with the Four Seasons wine business and its Grover Zampa portfolio history. It offers a simple entry point for readers exploring Indian wine styles.

Brand story

Zinzi belongs to the story of Indian wine labels that grew alongside the Four Seasons business. Its identity is best approached through the bottle in front of you, with the wine style shaped by its grape and colour.

Tasting notes

Style: A wine label with a profile that changes with the grape and colour of the bottle.

At the table: Expect a food-friendly style suited to light Indian starters, salads, and simple pasta dishes.

Why choose

A low-key Indian wine label for easy food pairings and relaxed, everyday pours.

How to enjoy

Serve: Follow the bottle label for chilling and glassware.

Food: Try with grilled paneer, light pasta, salads, or mild coastal seafood.

Pairings

- grilled paneer
- light pasta
- fresh salads
- mild coastal seafood
